2023/5783 CATALOG

Innovation Anchored in Tradition

Dear friends,

We are proud to present the 2023/5783 CCAR Press catalog, featuring our new and forthcoming titles along with our full collection of books in print, certificates, digital resources, and more.

One of the highlights of the past year has been our return to in-person conferences. It's always a treat being out in the field meeting readers and authors; online just wasn't the same. Keep an eye out for our books at Jewish conferences in the coming year, both in the Reform Movement and beyond.

Over the summer we welcomed our new Editor, Rabbi Annie Villarreal-Belford, who plays a key role in shaping our books. We are also delighted to welcome Rabbi Edwin Goldberg as the next Editor of CCAR Journal: The Reform Jewish Quarterly.

Our publications continue to be recognized by national book awards. Because My Soul Longs for You: Integrating Theology into Our Lives was a finalist for the Foreword Indies Book of the Year in the Religion category and was awarded silver medal in the Inspirational/Spiritual category at the Independent Publisher Book Awards. In the latter's Religion category, Mishkan HaSeder: A Passover Haggadah won the silver medal and The Social Justice Torah Commentary tied for bronze. Mazal tov to all the authors!

The unprecedented supply chain issues you've all been hearing about are still challenging the printing and paper industries. We're grateful for your patience if any of our books are temporarily out of stock; we'll do our best to make them available as soon as possible.

Read on to learn about our exciting new titles, including The First Fifty Years: A Jubilee in Prose and Poetry Honoring Women Rabbis, edited by Rabbi Sue Levi Elwell, Jessica Greenbaum, and Rabbi Hara Person; Re-forming Judaism: Moments of Disruption in Jewish Thought, edited by Rabbi Stanley Davids and Dr. Leah Hochman; Candle, Feather, Wooden Spoon: New Jewish Stories by Rabbi Zoë Klein; and Longing: Poems of a Life by Merle Feld.

We're inspired every day by the dedication of the Press staff: Rabbi Villarreal-Belford, Operations Manager Debbie Smilow, Marketing and Sales Manager Raquel Fairweather, Assistant Editor Chiara Ricisak, and Rabbinic Intern Ariel Tovlev. Their commitment makes everything we do possible.

Be sure to visit ccarpress.org and sign up for our emails to stay apprised of new books, author events, and special discounts. And did you know that CCAR Press authors are available to teach in your community? Email bookevents@ccarpress.org to learn more. Happy reading!

The Way of Humanity: According to Chasidic Teaching

Translated by Rabbi Bernard H. Mehlman and Dr. Gabriel E. Padawer

Foreword by Dr. Paul Mendes-Flohr

Martin Buber (1878–1965) was one of the most influential Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century. A philosopher, seeker, and nurturer of dialogue, he responded to the complexities of his times by affirming the fullness of interpersonal encounter and the spiritual everyday. In 1947, Buber delivered lectures interpreting six traditional Chasidic stories to a German-speaking audience, published as The Way of Humanity. In the first new English translation in over half a century, Rabbi Bernard H. Mehlman and Dr. Gabriel E. Padawer bring the work to contemporary readers in a clear, accessible voice. The teachings within highlight the subversion and innovation of the early Chasidic masters of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, while providing meaningful spiritual guidance and insight for any seeker today. A foreword by Dr. Paul Mendes-Flohr as well as an introduction, epilogue, and notes from the translators place Buber’s work in historical context. Timeless and enlightening, The Way of Man guides us to inner meaning and highlights our human wholeness.

Prophetic Voices: Renewing and Reimagining Haftarah

Edited by Rabbi Barbara AB Symons | Foreword by Rabbi Jonah Dov Pesner
The traditional haftarah cycle, read on Shabbat and holidays during the Torah service, contains a wealth of prophetic wisdom, yet today it is too often forgotten or ignored. Prophetic Voices gives new life to these ancient texts. A diverse group of contributors—including rabbis, cantors, scholars, educators, activists, and poets—provide short commentaries on each haftarah, demonstrating their profound relevance to the present. Moreover, the volume boldly invites us to rethink the haftarah canon. Going beyond the Prophets, it presents alternative readings from Jewish texts biblical to contemporary. New haftarot for each Shabbat and holiday are included, plus haftarot for the Jewish American calendar, from Yom HaShoah to Pride Month to Martin Luther King Jr. Day. The readings are enhanced by scholarly essays placing the Prophets in historical context and examining the role of prophecy in Reform Judaism. Prophetic Voices summons us to listen, study, think, and teach—as well as to sing, pray, and march.

Re-forming Judaism: Moments of Disruption in Jewish Thought

Edited by Rabbi Stanley M. Davids and Leah Hochman, PhD
Throughout Jewish history, revolutionary events and subversive ideas have burst onto the scene, transforming everything in their path. Re-forming Judaism seeks to explore these ideas—and the individuals behind them—by delving into historical disruptions that led to lasting change in Jewish thought. A distinguished array of scholars take us on a journey from the disruptive prophets of ancient times, through rational, mystical, and extremist medievalists, to the impact of Haskalah and early Reform thought in modernity. Contemporary innovations such as changes in liturgy and music, feminism, and post-Holocaust theology are included, as are insights into the Sephardic experience. By showing how Judaism forms—then re-forms, and re-forms again—the contributors demonstrate that tensions between continuity and change have always been part of Jewish life, helping us to both understand the past and contemplate the future.

The Sacred Earth: Jewish Perspectives on Our Planet

Edited by Rabbi Andru Kahn | Foreword by Karenna Gore
The Torah begins by setting forth the heavens and the Earth as God's creation, impelling humanity to steward our planet for its own sake and for its ability to nurture our lives. Yet the human-Divine-environment relationship seems to be in perpetual crisis. The Sacred Earth is a contemporary Jewish response to the looming threat of climate change, the widespread desire for experiential spirituality rooted in nature, and the continually changing relationship between humanity, nature, technology, and the Divine. The leading thinkers in this collection reflect on human vulnerability in the face of forces of nature, examine conceptions of our place in cosmology, and grapple with environmental destruction. Ultimately, with hope, they creatively explore ways to redeem this sacred Earth.

Longing: Poems of a Life

Merle Feld | Foreword by Rabbi Rachel Adler, PhD

What do we long for as we carry the traumas of our past and look into the future with guarded hope? In Longing: Poems of a Life, acclaimed poet Merle Feld tells her intensely personal story while naming profound human experience. Feld opens forbidden doors and long-shuttered windows, peering through the lattices of memory at moments of anguish, breaking, blessing, surviving. We accompany her through early family violence, isolation, the discovery of community and love; we witness her climb from the loss of possibility to the assertion of self-worth and purpose. Threading through the years are conversations with a mother long gone—"a slip of a girl" whose misplaced loyalty and endless capacity for loving are both cautionary tale and guidepost. Deeply Jewish yet universal, these gripping poems will stay with you.

This Precious Life: Encountering the Divine with Poetry and Prayer

Alden Solovy
Foreword by Rabbi Leon Morris

In This Precious Life, liturgist Alden Solovy presents prayers, poetry, and meditations inspired by encounters with God. The first part draws from divine moments in our sacred texts, mostly the Torah but also the Prophets and the Writings. Using a contemporary voice, Solovy imagines these holy moments as experienced by our biblical ancestors so we can reclaim them as our own. The second part focuses on sacred moments in our daily lives, connections with the Divine that occur simply because we are human beings created in God's image. Equally suited to individual reflection and group prayer, the book completes a trilogy with This Grateful Heart and This Joyous Soul.

Because My Soul Longs for You: Integrating Theology into Our Lives

Edited by Rabbi Edwin C. Goldberg and Rabbi Elaine S. Zecher

Because My Soul Longs for You seeks to answer one of the most enduring human questions: Where can we find God in our lives? While Jewish theologians have long pondered the "God question" from ethical and philosophical perspectives, the last century has made space for a more experiential theology: God is present in our lived experiences. Radical amazement, to use Rabbi Abraham Joshua Heschel's phrase, can be found in everyday life. Contributors to this volume share how they welcome God's presence into their lives, as well as the theological language they use to think and speak about this presence. Chapters explore how we experience God through prayer, text study, poetry, food, music, service, movement, meditation, interpersonal connection, and much more.

The Fragile Dialogue: New Voices of Liberal Zionism

Edited by Rabbi Stanley M. Davids and Rabbi Lawrence A. Englander

This collection of essays, some of which vigorously disagree with each other, asks the question of how we approach the subject of Zionism without further widening the rifts between us. Meant to be a conversation starter, this book wrestles with and attempts to frame the very fragile dialogue surrounding Zionism and Israel in the 21st century Progressive Jewish community. There is as much listening as there is talking in this important collection as it provides a challenging yet vital basis on which to explore liberal Zionism today.

The Book of Jonah: A Social Justice Commentary

Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz
Foreword by Christine Hayes, PhD

The Book of Jonah is a unique text in the Jewish canon. Among the shortest books in the Bible, it is also one of the most mysterious and morally ambiguous. Who is this prophet running from God, hiding at the bottom of the ocean? Why does he struggle with God's mission to save and forgive Israel's enemies? In this volume, Rabbi Dr. Yanklowitz shows that the Book of Jonah delivers a message of human responsibility in a shared world. Illuminating such contemporary ethical issues as animal welfare, incarceration, climate change, weapons of mass destruction, and Jewish-Muslim relations, this social justice commentary urges us to join in repairing a broken world—a call that we, unlike Jonah, must hasten to answer.

The Book of Proverbs: A Social Justice Commentary

Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz
Foreword by Rabbi Laura Geller

The Book of Proverbs, attributed to King Solomon, is a profound collection of Jewish wisdom, song, and inspiration. Yet to contemporary readers, the text can appear vague, ambiguous, and contradictory. In this refreshing and relevant commentary, Rabbi Dr. Shmuly Yanklowitz challenges us to find modern meaning in this ancient text. Using his signature blend of social justice practice and Jewish thought from throughout history, Rabbi Yanklowitz shows how the words of Proverbs are strikingly pertinent to issues we face today. Drawing on a wide range of sources, Rabbi Yanklowitz explores such topics as income inequality, feminism, animal rights, environmentalism, and many more. The author's commentary is paired with the full text of Proverbs so readers can glean their own insights.

The Sacred Earth Jewish Perspectives on Our Planet

Edited by Rabbi Andrué Kahn | Foreword by Karenna Gore

The Torah begins by setting forth the heavens and the Earth as God's creation, impelling humanity to steward our planet for its own sake and for its ability to nurture our lives. Yet the human-Divine-environment relationship seems to be in perpetual crisis. The Sacred Earth is a contemporary Jewish response to the looming threat of climate change, the widespread desire for experiential spirituality rooted in nature, and the continually changing relationship between humanity, nature, technology, and the Divine. The leading thinkers in this collection reflect on human vulnerability in the face of forces of nature, examine conceptions of our place in cosmology, and grapple with environmental destruction. Ultimately, with hope, they creatively explore ways to redeem this sacred Earth.

Songs Ascending: The Book of Psalms in a New Translation with Textual and Spiritual Commentary

By Rabbi Richard N. Levy

This beautiful, poetic translation by Rabbi Levy of the Book of Psalms, with textual commentary that will take you inside the translation process, will help you to understand the choices each psalm's author seems to have made, and the choices facing us in the 21st century as we try to make each psalm our own. The spiritual commentary asks: to what events, struggles or triumphs in our own lives might this psalm speak? How might this psalm articulate an aspect of our spiritual lives, and how might it help us celebrate a holiday or another special day? How might it accompany us when we are ill, or visiting someone who is ill? How might it provide comfort when we have lost someone dear to us?

Prophetic Voices: Renewing and Reimagining Haftarah

Edited by Rabbi Barbara AB Symons

The traditional haftarah cycle, read on Shabbat and holidays during the Torah service, contains a wealth of prophetic wisdom, yet today it is too often forgotten or ignored. Prophetic Voices gives new life to these ancient texts. A diverse group of contributors—including rabbis, cantors, scholars, educators, activists, and poets—provide short commentaries on each haftarah, demonstrating their profound relevance to the present. Moreover, the volume boldly invites us to rethink the haftarah canon. Going beyond the Prophets, it presents alternative readings from Jewish texts biblical to contemporary. New haftarot for each Shabbat and holiday are included, plus haftarot for the Jewish American calendar, from Yom HaShoah to Pride Month to Martin Luther King Day. The readings are enhanced by scholarly essays placing the Prophets in historical context and examining the role of prophecy in Reform Judaism. Prophetic Voices summons us to listen, study, think, and teach—as well as to sing, pray, and march.
