

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

INTRODUCTIONS

- I · Sparks, Fragments, Meanings: A Reader-Friendly Introduction 3
- II · Turn It and Turn It!: Introducing the Torah Commentators 7

THE TORAH PORTIONS OF GENESIS

Parashat Bereshit 19

- God's creation is a blessing
- Humanity is responsible for the world
- Adam's and Eve's expulsion from Eden
- Human beings are responsible for one another

Parashat Noach 28

- One righteous person can save the world
- Ingredients for destroying the world
- Sources of human unhappiness and confusion

Parashat Lech-Lecha 36

- Defining "leadership"
- The importance of honesty
- How to settle disagreements
- The mitzvah of rescuing captives
- Circumcision in Jewish tradition

Parashat Vayera 44

- The art of hospitality
- Consequences of injustice
- "Loyalty" to God

Parashat Chaye Sarah	53
Jewish mourning practices
Purchasing at the full price
Defining “beauty”
The meaning of “love”
Parashat Toledot	60
Jealousy between siblings; stereotypes and prejudice
Favoritism by parents
Intermarriage
Parashat Vayetze	71
The role of angels in the Torah
Proper and improper prayer
Dealing with dishonest people
Parashat Vayishlach	80
Confronting “power”
Wrestling with ourselves
Responding to rape
Parashat Vayeshev	91
Hostility between siblings
Delivering what is promised; embarrassing others
Measuring loyalty and success
Parashat Miketz	100
Interpreting dreams
Choosing between revenge and caring
Choosing between death and survival
Parashat Vayigash	108
Speaking out for justice
Achieving reconciliation between enemies
Fearing the stranger
Economic planning and justice
Parashat Vayechi	119
Jewish burial practices
Making “honest” evaluations; more on “leadership”
Lying in the cause of peace
Glossary of Commentaries and Intepreters	127
Bibliography	133