

God told Moses to tell us to act in special ways, to love our parents,

to care for strangers,

to care for those poorer than ourselves, and to share with strangers.