

Welcoming Shabbat

שַׁבָּת

Our tradition invites each of us to offer tzedaka before the beginning of Shabbat. Consider placing a tzedaka container by your Shabbat table offering contributions.

“When you reap the harvest of your field and overlook a sheaf in the field, do not turn back to get it; it shall go to the stranger, the fatherless and the widow—in order that God may bless you in all your undertakings.” [Deut. 24:19]

“Happy are those who consider the poor . . .”
[Psalm 41:2]

May we, together with all our people, respond to the needs of others.
From the fruits of our harvest this week,
we share with others.

And so we gain blessing:
our lives have meaning,
our lives have love.

*As You greet us with Your angels on Shabbat,
may we be Your messengers to the world.*
